POLITICAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

There is said to have been discovered a kind of tobacco which if smoked or chewed, will make a man forget that he owes a dollar in the world. We have several friends who smoke it.—Boston Post.

The Detroit Free Press is fairly delighted with Gen. Grant. He has just said something in favor of Gen. Lee as a man. If General Grant should speak kindly of Jeff Davis, the Free Press would be in danger of dying of overjoy.—Ray City Tribune.

The accidental explosion of a pistol at the social at the American House, last evening, was the only unpleasant event of the evening. No one seriously hurt, however.—El Paso, Tex., Lone Star.

It is fanner than a circus or a comic opera to see a Democratic administration, with a Mississippi man in the cabinet, involving up its nose at murder in that state. But for political murders there could have been no Democratic administration.—Washington Republican.

The question having been raised by somebody whether Gen. Logan had ever been wounded during his service in the rebellion, he has written a letter in reply to an inquiry in which he says: "I was wounded three times and was hit several times by spent balls, causing temporary lameness."

A gentleman came home in the "evening" hours, and found the "lady" at the South End recently, and was surprised to find his wife clad in black. "Why are you wearing these mourning garments?" he said, somewhat unkindly. "For my late husband," was the significant reply. He has been in the house at ten ever since.

A venerable and prominent lawyer of the Old Colony, who died recently, noted for his dry and joking remarks, said to his son-in-law as he lay in bed, and, putting on a solemn expression, said: "John, I've just one last request to make of you. When I am buried, see to it that one of those hand-fire grenades is put in the coffin."

In Summer time, when the thoughts of men are turned to leafy arbors and rippling brooks, towering mountains and roaring surf, the Michigan Central presents to him a choice of routes to all the Eastern and Northern resorts that is embarrassing by its variety and number of their divers attractions. The summer tourist and Mackinac Island folders, just issued are models of beauty and taste in the typographic art and full of interest. Copies can be obtained of any agent of the company, or of O. W. Ruggles, general passenger and ticket agent, Chicago.

The Bay City Tribune, says: A leading Democratic paper of Chicago after comparing the division of the spoils as between the several states concludes a denunciation of the administration's unfairness with the reflection that "The people of Illinois, however ready to adjust themselves to a situation which makes the post of honor, a private station, and await the certain dawning of the day when, with a spread of her soil in the white house, there will be nothing in the latter too good for her, and concludes with the ominous intimation that "John Logan is mighty well acquainted with this neck of the woods."

Among the leading members of the House Daniel P. Markey, the Republican representative from Ogemaw county, stands prominent. He is a native of the county in which the capital is situated, and a successful lawyer at home. As chairman of the judiciary committee he has had more committee work to perform than any other member and it has been done promptly and well. Mr. Markey is a quiet, industrious worker. He speaks only when the subject is worth discussion, and then is listened to with close attention. His speeches are crisp, clear and logical. It was his address that defeated the Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon extension resolution when it was first considered.—Del. Post.

Brazil, South America, has adopted a program for the abolition of slavery of which the following is a synopsis. A general registry of all slaves, with a declaration of value of each slave registered, subject to a yearly depreciation of 5 per cent., making the maximum value of slaves of 60 years of age will have no money value, but will be obliged to serve for a term of three years. The existing emancipation fund will be continued, and in addition a new fund will be created from a tax of 5 per cent. on all public revenues except exports, and indemnification will be made to slave owners in 5 per cent. policies to one-half the value of each slave and a service of five years in payment of the remainder.

"Ma, what do you think? There's a rumor that Mr. Bliss is a married man. Ain't that too bad?"
"Tush! don't you believe it. If he isn't a bachelor there never was one."
"But how do you know he is?"
"Why, pshaw, child anybody could tell that by the agonizing look that comes over him when he sees a baby."

He was getting thoroughly despondent and one evening after his wife had treated him to an unusually large slice of her mind said: "Well, Marj, I've stood this about as long as I can. I've about made up my mind to go and throw myself into the lake." "Don't you do it, John," was the reply. "Gracious knows there's sickness enough comes from that lake water already."—Burlington Free Press.

"Congratulations, on your approaching marriage," said Mr. Hyatt, a prominent New York merchant, to his daughter. "Marriage, pa? I don't know anything about it." "I am telling you about it now," replied Mr. Hyatt. "But who is the bridegroom, pa?" asked Julia. "That's none of your business. You must not have so much curiosity. There is a business secret that can not be divulged just now. I'll let you know who he is after the wedding is over."—New York Graphic.

The Philadelphia Times (Democratic), like the Detroit Free Press, has been writing about the "retorts" which the administration promises in the matter of undervaluations in the New York custom-house. But it does not look upon the matter with the same enthusiasm as the Free Press. On the contrary it predicts partial, if not complete, failure. It says:

"Whether the reforms already inaugurated and those still in contemplation by the treasury department will cure the evils complained of is not at all certain. The present results can be turned out, but it is hard to insure against the turning in of new results." This is a phrase of the affair which the Free Press wholly neglected; and yet the turning in of new results is the thing most likely to occur.—Del. Post.

During the presidential campaign the democrats charged the depressed condition of business all to the mismanagement of the republican party, and pictured what glorious times we would have if the democratic party should gain the ascendancy and assume the reins of government. They succeeded in electing Grover. The party that professed to be able to do so much for our country has been running the government for three months, and the poor laboring man is just as hard up as ever; business is as dull as ever; if not in a worse condition all over the country. In view of this fact it is rather amusing now to see the democrats charging Providence with the hard times, and claiming that times would have been hard no matter which party was in power.—Northern Tribune.

The magnanimity of New York have announced that if the Democrats of that state nominate "a representative of the spoils system" for governor, and if the Republicans should nominate "a Blaine man," then they, the magnanimous, will put up a candidate of their own. We don't know, of course, what our Democratic brethren of the Empire state will do; but we think it will be difficult to find a Republican who is not a "Blaine man," in the sense of being a hearty supporter of his candidacy last fall. The Republican party will certainly not satisfy itself by nominating a magnanimous, for his defeat would be an absolute certainty. We favor a straight mugwump ticket. It will enable us to see them to be taken, and show the country how few they really are.—Blade.

The feeling of the Southern Bourbon towards the Republicans among them, and especially towards those who are leaders in the party organization, are well shown in the following extract from a New Orleans special to the Chicago Tribune. MEADE, who presided over the meeting of the Copiah County Democratic Central Committee at the time it endorsed the foul murder of PHILIP MATTHEWS, was recently appointed postmaster at Hazlehurst, that county; but on learning of his record in this matter, President Cleveland demanded his resignation.

A prominent Mississippiian today denounced the administration in respect to the Meade case in unmitigated terms, and said: "It has got beyond necessity of concealment that the killing of Phil. Matthews was a political necessity. He was educated, well off and hard-headed. He held the negroes up to the Republican mark, and persuasion to desert had no effect upon him. So long as he wouldn't quit, he had to be killed in order that Mississippi should be and remain a Democratic state, and that a Democratic President might be elected. Why make so much fuss about Matthews, when scores of men had to be killed before Lamar could go to the Senate, and then into Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet? If Meade resigns on the demand of the President he is a fool, and if the President insists upon it he is a white-haired hypocrite, and only worthy of the contempt of faithful Democrats."

"Come here to me, you good-for-nothing," exclaimed a pious farmer, addressing his son. "You ought to be ashamed of yourself, going fishing on Sunday."
"I didn't go fishing, pap. I only went down the line to throw rocks at them nigger boys."
"Oh, well, that alters the case. Recollect, my son, you must never violate the Sabbath."

"Pa, does sausage come out of its hole on cauldren's day, and look around for its shadow so as to make an early spring? Ma says it does."
"What are you talking about?" says the papa to the little boy. "It is the ground hog that comes out of its hole, not the sausage." "Well, ain't sausage ground hog?" and the little one went off on his roller skates as though shot out of a gun, leaving the old man to worry over the incipient punter in an otherwise respectable family.—Peck's Story.

"Did you catch on to the sound of that?" remarked a youth to his companion, the other, evening as a high sounding-kiss was heard coming from a couple standing in a doorway.
"Well, I should say I did," replied the other. "It sounded like a sky-rocked hat busting. I guess they must be a newly-married couple and they haven't got through with the honeymoon yet."

"Honey-moon, thunder! You can just bet on it they ain't married yet. Married kisses don't sound like that; they ain't the sounding kind."

For the information of all concerned we publish the following act which received the Governor's signature March 12, and is operative from and after that date, the bill having been ordered to take immediate effect. An act providing for an exemption from poll-tax of discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, resident in the State of Michigan.

Enacted May 21. GIL R. OGDEN.

Among the Farmers.
During the progress of the week we were invited to take a ride into Crawford County, to the farm of Joseph Royce, Ball township, which we accepted, and we were most agreeably surprised at the amount of farming done there. Mr. Royce, a settler, having been there but two years, and is now quite comfortably situated. He has a substantial frame house, and some 15 or 20 acres of improvements, and his crops look well.

On our way through South Branch, we passed the farm of George Hall, N. H. Evans, J. Loline, A. B. Payne, H. Mead, J. Miller, Geo. Langdale, Daniel Posse, Chas. Reed, W. York, Geo. Downs, J. S. Task, J. Ralston, and D. Dunn, on which the various crops of rye, wheat and oats looked fine, and the clover and corn of the farms can't be beat in some of the older settled counties further north. We also passed the new farm of Jas. Utter. Mr. Utter moved in some six weeks ago, and for the time he has been there, has made great improvements in the way of fencing and clearing.

The farmers we talked with seem to be well satisfied, and say it is only a question of time to make this one of the best growing grain districts in the State. We have any amount of such land in this country that would make many a poor man a good home if they would only come and improve it. We arrived home somewhat tired, but felt well repaid for our time, in witnessing the success of the farmers in this and our neighboring country.—Roscammon News.

Seeding to Grass.

Our greatest need now is, to grow more grass; not more acres but more to the acre, leaving a larger area of ground for fodder and other crops raised on a mixed farm. This can only be done by better preparation of the soil, and better feeding. Instead of throwing the seed in a haphazard way upon the hard weather-beaten surface of the ground in the spring, the seeding should be postponed until the grain is cut and harvested. The soil is then to be plowed with a shallow furrow, thoroughly well harrowed, and made fine and compact. The seed must be sown and immediately brushed in with the smoothing brush harrow, which is easily made. This level and firms the soil, as well as spreads and covers the seed. It is well to use this barrow-groove of the harrow marks, and across the line of sowing, so as to spread the seed more evenly. It is better still to sow the seed both ways, half each way, if the sower is not able to spread it quite evenly. The even sowing is very important, because bare spaces are a great injury in two ways; one, that the ground is vacant, and will produce weeds in the bare spots; the other, that the grass is too crowded where it is too thickly sown. Grass seeds, if sown as here directed, will start up quickly and grow rapidly; if the seeding is done in July or early in August, the young grass will be strong enough to resist the winter safely, and a heavy crop will be the result.—American Agriculturist.

The Illinois senate passed the house civil rights bill, which gives colored people the same rights as whites in hotels, restaurants, theaters and other public places. It provides that for any violation the person offending shall pay not less than $25 nor more than $500 to the person aggrieved, and shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall pay a fine of $100, or be imprisoned not more than one year, or both. Judgment in favor of the party aggrieved or punishment upon an indictment, is to be a bar to either prosecution respectively.

"We" editorially and otherwise, know how it feels to be in a cedar swamp after cub bears and expect the old one to show up every minute.

Last Wednesday, the writer, his father and brother, were fishing at George Lake, when an old bear and two cubs were seen on the bank. The bear was pushed towards shore, the old bear ran away and the cubs tread. After cutting live or six trees the little varmints were captured and tied, and although they made a great noise, old mother bear did not put in an appearance. Under the tutelage of his majesty, our devil, the young bears will be taught how to deal with the man who fails to know, "who wrote that article?"—Ogenius Herald.

Donavin's Famous Tennesseans are to give one of their musical entertainments in this place next Saturday Evening. Judging from the high reputation the Tennesseans have maintained since their organization in 1873, and the unlimited praise accorded them by eminent musical critics and the public press where they have been, it is not too much to predict that it will prove the best concert of vocal music ever given here. Their program embraces a large variety and wide range of singing, which can not fail to please all. They were one of the leading attractions at Chautauqua at the last assembly. Admission 35¢ and 50¢.

Godley's Lady's Book. For July is the 601st appearance of this venerable Magazine. Like old wine it gives on the fruition of age. The number for July needs no special recommendation as it exceeds in beauty and merit any previous appearance of this old-fashioned Magazine. Its illustrations are rich and beautiful, while its reading matter, Dressmaking, Household and Recipe departments are replete with entertainment and information. A house without Godley's does not know its loss as each month it contains practical hints of far more value than the price of the Magazine. Those desiring to take it may subscribe for the balance of the year for one dollar, which allows every subscriber a selection of a full-size cut-paper pattern each month. As these patterns are noted for their accuracy, more than the price of the Magazine is received in the value of the patterns. Address: J. H. Haulenbeck, P. O. Box, 1111, Phila.

EDITOR AVALANCHE.—In passing through Beaver Creek Township, we are imbued with renewed faith in the plains of Crawford and adjoining counties eventually becoming a wheat producing soil. It seems that all that is necessary to grow a good crop of wheat, is good cultivation and seed well put in, and Providence will do the rest. I believe that most of the plains land in this county, will in time become a good wheat-producing soil. A new piece should be broken up early in the season and cultivated well during the summer. A wheat cultivator, which always does the work the best and put in one and a half bushels of seed to the acre, with a roller, is a most valuable implement with a good roller. Sow from the middle of August to first of September, and I do not doubt but that from 15 to 20 bushels to the acre can be raised, and on some of these plains greater yields can be had. I would ask where in this section of country could farms be made, and the soil give quicker returns for the labor and money expended, than by breaking up and putting in a crop of wheat on these plains. I believe there are none superior. To be convinced, take a look over the plains in Grove, Center Plains, South Branch, Beaver Creek, and perhaps Ball Township. There are I hear, some fine fields of wheat in Ball that promise well, of the others I speak understandingly, mostly from my own observation. Experience has proven this soil with an underdrainage superior to any that could be devised by man; being underlaid with a strata of gravel, so that within a few hours after a heavy rain there is not much standing water remaining on the surface. Another advantage is that the snow usually comes before freezing weather in the Fall, of sufficient depth that the ground remains unfrozen all winter, and when the snow goes off in the Spring the wheat looks green, and is not winter killed as is the case in some localities where it has no protection. A man with health and a small capital, can make a good farm out of some portions of these plains that are uncultivated, in three or four years, whereas to clear up a timbered land farm, it takes about one generation before he has got the land cleared and the stump out before he can enjoy the fruits of his labor. If a young man when he commenced, he is now comparatively old when he is just situated to commence living. You must not suppose that I mean that a man without any capital, that would need to work for others the most of his time could do so well. He must have enough to live on and support himself and family, (if he have one) so as to work for himself, and I am sure there would be no disappointment in the result. I called on Mr. Miles who is located on Sec. 40, Beaver Creek Township, who has some nice looking wheat as one could wish to see. Mr. Barney, Mr. Hannah, and Supervisor Hastings, along the center of the township, have nice pieces; also some on Sec. 6, that look quite well. Many of the residents are quite sanguine that farming in this county is going to be a success. All, or nearly all, land but very little means left after getting a small house up to shelter the family, and have mostly worked out to live, only working on their farms when work could not be had, so that many of them have not tested the growing of wheat on the plains.

EASTERN.

While suffering from delirium tremens Joseph Brown, a saloon-keeper at Newport, R. I., blew up his place of business with powder, and was shortly afterward killed, leaving a wife and three children.

The New Hampshire Legislature, in joint session, elected the following officers: Secretary of State, A. B. Thompson; State Printer, John B. Clark; State Treasurer, John A. Carter; Commissioner General, Frank P. Brown. In the Republican caucus Senator Hale was nominated for reelection on the first ballot, and the nomination was made unanimous.

General Grant, has accepted an invitation to occupy the cottage of his friend Mr. Drexel at Mount MacGregor, near Farmington, and will start on the 23d of June, says a New York dispatch. "The cottage on the mountain where he will pass the summer is only visited by many curious sight-seers. It is ten and a half miles from Saratoga, on one of the most peaks in the Lower Adirondack region. It is reached by a narrow-gauge railway, ascending at times for a grade of 50 feet to the mile. The building has been thoroughly renovated under the direction of Joseph W. Drexel, of New York; its owner. Near the cottage a coat has been erected, and B. W. Willet, of New York City, an army veteran who served under Gen. Grant, will be on duty there as long as his old commander is on the mountain.

A passenger train on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road was blown from the track by a violent wind storm near McCook, Dakota, just west of Sioux City. There were two passenger coaches, baggage and mail cars. The train was blowing at a terrific full speed when the cyclone struck the train. Every car was blown from the track and the engine partially so. There were between sixty and seventy passengers in the cars, most of them injured, excepting with slight injuries. L. M. Scott, the express messenger, was badly hurt and supposed to be internally injured. An old couple whose names are not given were quite severely injured. It is thought not fatally. Nearly every passenger on the train suffered from scratches, bruises, or contusions, but save those above mentioned no one was badly hurt.

SOUTHERN.

The cotton worm has appeared in alarming numbers in Texas and Indian Territory, and is committing extensive ravages. The remainder of the late Alexander Stephens were removed last week from Atlanta to Crawfordville, Ga., and interred at Liberty Hill, the old Stephens homestead. Gen. Robert Toombs delivered an address.

During the progress of a negro camp meeting at Mount Zion Church, in York County, S. C., a bloody battle was fought between a crowd of country and Yorkville negroes. Cheap pistols, razors, knives, and whisky bottles were the implements of warfare, and a rivalry between the town and country negroes the cause. Whisky encouraged the fight. One negro was killed, and two fatally and not less than a score seriously wounded. The country negroes had warned their town countrymen to keep away from the meeting, and when the fight ended the town negroes were in full retreat.

are in a state of great excitement, the rumors of the death of the American ambassador in London, followed by the other members of the mission, are being spread by the press. The American ambassador in London, Mr. Arthur B. Kimball, a former Ambassador in Paris, will take the place of the murdered American through the machinations of Russia.

"The scenes in the House of Commons when Mr. Gladstone announced the retirement of his Ministry," says a London dispatch, "were the most extraordinary that have been witnessed in St. Stephen's Hall for many years. The attendance and the excitement have not been equalled for a generation. The crowds in the House overflowed into the palace yard, and the whole Westminster district was filled with excited groups of men of all parties, who cheered or booed every noble member according to his politics.

The cheering reached its climax when Mr. Gladstone made his appearance in the House. The applause was so very grateful to the retiring Premier, and he deliberately turned to the right and to the left as the great volume of sound seemed to come from that direction. When he spoke at last it was to make the announcement plainly and unequivocally that Queen and telegrapher had accepted of his resignation and those of his colleagues in the Cabinet.

Albert Peel was found guilty at Paris of having seduced his mother and two wives and sentenced to death by the guillotine. The French Government has refused to suppress the gambling-tables at Monte Carlo.

Dr. Eugene Eugenie having withdrawn Prince Victor Napoleon's annuity of 25,000 francs because of his vicious course of life, a syndicate of capitalists has taken upon itself a mission of double duty.

"The Queen is being crowned for her proper acceptance of Gladstone's resignation," but she appears delighted with the change. She never liked the Premier, it is said, because he could not flatter, and was impatient as a state servant to the throne, and besides they were never in harmony about England's foreign affairs.

In his last Sunday's discourse at Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, Mr. Beecher declared that the seventh and eighth chapters of Romans could not be interpreted satisfactorily upon the substantial theory of evolution. This theory he believed to be a perversion of the true doctrine of the Bible.

After the consultation of the physicians last Sunday Dr. Fred Grant said his father had a bad night; that his condition was growing weaker; and that his condition was not so good as it had been.

A large section of Iowa was visited by a destructive storm. At Palski four persons were killed and two fatally injured. Numerous persons killed and two fatally injured.

Trains were blown from the tracks, and several bridges were destroyed. Towns and villages were flooded, and many miles of railroad track submerged. Considerable damage was inflicted upon growing crops.

A severe storm also prevailed in Nebraska, Iowa, and Missouri. The Union Pacific Railroad between Omaha and North Platte. In the south part of the State a great many buildings were wrecked by wind and lightning. At Millard two lumber yards were blown away.

Crop reports from Minnesota and Dakota are favorable. The condition of grain in Iowa is also reported as excellent, while the cotton crop here is fair to be an excellent one. The Russian grain is committing extensive ravages in the wheat fields of Washington County, Indiana. The corn crop of Wisconsin will fall 30 per cent. below that of last year. The wheat crop is estimated to be 175,000,000 bushels less than last year.

The falling of an Illinois mill will about one-third of an inch. An epidemic of cholera is prevailing near Elkhorn, Wisconsin.

The Republicans of Chicago have been determined to contest the right of Carter H. Havens to hold his seat in the city of the city. The management of the contest has been placed in the hands of the Chicago Republican.

City of Mexico dispatch: "Advises from Leon state that a few nights ago the Leon River rose and entered the eastern part of the city. Two persons were drowned, the Central Railway washed out, and growing crops destroyed. On the following night a severe rain storm broke a few miles above the town of San Juan, twenty miles from Leon City. The flood was so great that it practically annihilated Cuernavaca. Thus far 170 bodies have been recovered. Many bodies were washed several miles down the valley, being discovered in holes below the town. The search is going on. Paso de Cuernavaca had eight hundred inhabitants before the flood."
